For pleasure without regret

You would love to try everything, but don't want to eat much in the evening? Churchill said "One should offer the body something good, so that the soul may desire to dwell in it" and so we offer many dishes as ½ or classic portions.

Good to know

We are happy to decant your wines at the desired time.

If you have allergies or intolerances to certain substances or products, please let our staff know when you place your order. They will be happy to provide you with more detailed information.

Please keep a minimum distance of 1m to other guests.

Our Ristorantino is small, but ohoo, so we recommend that you to book a table in the morning. Wednesday closed.
